Joshua Galvin @ Central Training have the flexibility to work with a salon's bespoke training programme and fit apprenticeships around it.

Course Funding

Depending on the age, experience and location employees have the following options available.

For learners aged 16 – 18 train with us for free. For learners aged 19 and over, there will be a small contribution expected from the employer. For more information, please contact one of our recruitment team.

Schools project, please contact for details.

College attendance is on a day release basis or on one of our in Salon Training Programmes. The length of these programmes and the level of support your employee will require will be determined by a rigorous initial assessment process that will recognise their skills and competence.
